Church Walk to Osmaston Village via Bluebell Wood

This afternoon 2pm from Louise Latham's house

A lovely circular walk through bluebells and then on to the village of Osmaston and back to Louise's house for coffee, tea and cakes!

The walk is approximately 4.5 miles and please note that there is a particularly steep hill towards the end of the walk.

If you need directions to Louise's house or you need a lift from church please let her know (office@stbd.org.uk) 01335 360094

Word for Today Magazines

Word for Today magazines are now available on the welcome table for May, June & July Please do take one.

The magazines provide a daily devotional reading and also details and information about UCB radio and TV

Prayer points for the coming week:

- For Margaret Hawley's family and friends
- Ask God to give us a renewed sense of strength and courage to help us to face any tasks we have been dreading.
- Pray that God would help us to cultivate an attitude that's joyful and approachable and makes us instantly recognisable as a follower of Christ.

New Youth Group starting for children in years 6-11

The group meets on the 1st Wednesday of each month and is for anyone experiencing loss through the death of someone close, or through a change in circumstances, eg divorce, separation, redundancy, etc.

The group meets to support each other and to share experiences.

For more information, see Liz Lunn

Come and Pray: 'THY KINGDOM COME'

The Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby is inviting all churches to participate in a prayer movement between the festivals of Ascension and Pentecost to pray that people may hear and respond to the good news of Jesus Christ.

We are planning a series of prayer times as last year based around the Lord's Prayer.

There will be 5 sessions here at church (all at 6.00pm - 6.30pm) on: Thursday 25th May, Tuesday 30th, Wednesday 31st, Thursday 1st June, Friday 2nd and Saturday June 3rd but at 8.30 - 9.45 am followed by breakfast!

There will be a celebration evening to conclude this prayer week at Riverside Church on Sunday June 4th at 6.30pm.

Please come to as many of these prayer times as you can, everyone is welcome.

Please speak to Liz Lunn for more information.
